Horse and Rider Combine to Beat Out the Way in Feature Race.

◆

Ideal Weather Brings Out Larger Crowd Than Attended On Opening Day.

◆

NEW YORK, N. Y., June 13.—The Richmond Highweight Handicap was provided as the main attraction of a well-balanced card at Jamaica today and furnished a decided surprise in the defeat of S. C. Hildreth's speedy Out the Way by the Greentree Stable's Peter Piper. The latter was ridden by Knapp, who immediately sent the French-bred gelding to the front and kept him there throughout, holding the Hildreth representative safe at all stages. Out the Way seemed to tire near the end after the fast early pace. George Starr was eliminated by suffering considerable interference at the half mile post.

Today's weather was ideal for outdoor sport and a larger crowd than attending the opening was present.

An exciting stretch duel marked the running of the second race, Pastoral Swain and Crystal Ford fighting it out from the stretch turn until the finish line, where Lyke's powerful riding enabled The Beach Stable's candidate to gain the decision by a short margin.

There has seldom been seen a more tired horse than King John was when he won the third from Ivry. His peculiar climbing gait accentuated his condition and he just lasted. But for Ivry being in close quarters throughout, he would have surely won. Sylvano ran well in the early running of this race but suddenly tired when entering the stretch and fell back.

Frederick the Great scored an easy and popular victory in the fifth, leading by a wide margin all the way.

Jockey J. McTaggart was suspended for four days by starter Mars Cassidy.

CUDGEL IN GOOD HEALTH AGAIN.

Trainer Bedwell had Cudgel on the track for the first time today since he came back from Kentucky. "He had a bad attack of coughing," said Mr. Ross' trainer, "but he has got over it and will soon be in good condition again, I hope."

Henry McDaniel says Sun Briar will be ready for a race early in August. He is being pointed for his Saratoga stake engagements.

When Pawnee II. won the first for J. L. Murphy and King John won the third for Lumsden, it proved the first victories of the season for both these popular stables. Both winners were saddled by James W. Healey, who was associated with the Parr stable for several years.

The Excelsior Handicap is the big feature carded for Saturday's inviting program at Jamaica, the likely starters and their riders being as follows:

Horse.	Wt.	Rider.
Roamer	121	A. Schuttinger
Exterminator	124	T. Rice
Corn Tassel	115	L. Ensor
Star Master	119	W. Knapp
Boniface	108	C. Kummer
Naturalist	122	C. Fairbrother
Fairy Wand	105
Lady Gertrude	97

The regulars are thankful the meeting at Belmont Park is over. While it is a magnificent racing ground, it is not over popular with these regulars. The principal objection to them is its reverse or left-hand course as to other tracks. The stretches, too, are so wide that horses at times run all over them. The rank and file are glad to get back to the old circular track at Jamaica.

Just Fancy, which was purchased by Senor A. H. Diaz, the Cuban turfman, last year, is known as the Tobacco Fund filly because the proceeds from her sale were devoted to a fund which supplied smokes to the army overseas.

NEW MANAGER FOR E. B. McLEAN STUD

LEXINGTON, Ky., June 13.—Henry Williams, well-known as a successful handler of trotting colts, has been engaged by former Senator Joseph W. Bailey to take charge of the stud of thoroughbreds headed by Colin, owned by E. B. McLean and located at Hinata Farm near this city.

Sires of Winning Two-Year-Olds

Premier Sweep Unrepresented in the List Up to the Close of May's Racing

At the end of the month of May 150 two-year-olds of the present year had won races. In the matter of paternity they represented eighty-seven stallions, foreign and domestic. At the head of affairs were Broomstick and Celt with five winners each. The two leaders were followed by Golden Maxim, Helmet, Pataud, Peter Quince, Runnymede, Sea King and Von Tromp with four each and these by Aeronaut, Colin, Dick Finnell, Harrigan, Meelick and Ormondale with three. A curious feature is that Sweep, which sent nineteen winning two-year-olds to the races in 1917 and twelve in 1918, had no representative in the list up to the date named. The winning youngsters, arranged under their sires and their records, are the following:

LATONIA, Ky., June 13.—The colors of Frank J. Kelly, the Chicago turfman, were carried to victory in the feature race at Latonia this afternoon when his Pastoureau scored in game style from Clermont after a hard drive, in which the diminutive Boyle figured prominently by outgeneraling the crack C. Robinson, who was astride Clermont. The latter was probably best, and had Robinson not delayed his final effort with him too long he would in all probability have beaten Pastoureau. Vulcanite was the favored one in the race, and after flattering extensively when he took the lead in the stretch he tired unexpectedly and brought up in third place.

Fast racing was again the rule here during the afternoon, and several of the dashes were productive of close and interesting contests.

Favorites were again in the minority when it came to recording successes. However, the most pronounced choice of the afternoon scored when the fleet Marjorie Hynes raced home in advance of those she met in the third race. Her showing this afternoon, in which she displayed great speed, stamps her as ranking with the best here. She ran the four and a half furlongs in 52⅘, winning in a canter and eased up. The first half mile was run in 46⅕.

A well matched band met in the opening dash, and the purse was taken by W. W. Hastings, running in the colors of M. J. Rooney, secretary to Mayor Martin Behrman of New Orleans. His victory was due to the alert ride he received, for Madge F. might have scored with stronger riding.

Catania was a supposed good thing in the second race, but after showing adaptness in getting away from the barrier with a rush she failed to keep her advantage and wound up well beaten, Miss Parnell and Miss Minks fighting it out for the greater part of the race, with the former winning.

The running of the second race brought injury to jockeys Murray and Warrington. The former was struck in the eye by a clod and had to decline riding in the next race, on which he was to have ridden Sister Helene. Warrington was struck in the face and the blood trickled freely from his nostrils when he returned to the scales.

About as poor a band as could be mustered here started in the fifth race and it resulted in a narrow victory for Contestant at long odds, with Starkey and The Gallant following and the favorite, Exhorter, tiring fast in the stretch.

Legal carried Williams Bros.' colors to victory in the sixth race, in which Grey Eagle was a slight favorite. The latter was done after going a half mile. This was an exceptionally fast run affair, the mile being covered in 1:38⅕.

Jockey Boyle again distinguished himself in the closing race, in which his good riding was a factor in the success of Walnut Hall, which stayed well to beat Dick Williams. Deckmate headed the others in third place.

Billy Myer, former track superintendent and rebuilder of the Saratoga track, was among the visitors here this afternoon, having stopped off en route to New York from Lexington, where he has been inspecting stock farms with a view to purchasing on the account of Harry Sinclair, whose horses are being trained by Sam C. Hildreth. If the deal for a Blue Grass farm is consummated, Billy Myer will be put in charge of it and it will also combine a track where the Hildreth-Sinclair horses will be given trials. It was Billy Myer's first visit to this course and he was greatly impressed with its appointments and scenic beauty.

Acting for Mrs. G. C. and W. H. Baker, trainer "Tex" Forman sold at private terms today the horse James Foster to R. Brandow of Cleveland.

HOW FAR CAN SPEEDY SIR BARTON GO

"As Far as Horses Run," Says His Breeder, John E. Madden—A "Big" Little Horse.

NEW YORK, N. Y., June 13.—"How far can Sir Barton go?" some one inquired of John E. Madden, the breeder of the sensational three-year-old of the year. "As far as horses run," replied the master of Hamburg Place.

Mr. Madden then explained the significance of the larger figures branded on the neck of the three-year-old champion. "The number one hundred and eighty-seven is the number of his dam on my stud records," he said, "and the sixteen indicates the year he was foaled. Mr. Madden says Sir Barton is 15.2½ hands high and weighs in racing condition about ten hundred and fifty pounds. Tom Healey described him as "the biggest little horse I ever saw," alluding to his substance and muscular development.

HORSE REPARATION BY GERMANY

LONDON, England, June 1.—It is not generally known that one of the clauses of the peace treaty obliges Germany to send to France and Belgium within three months after the date of signature, and at the rate of one-third a month:

To France—500 stallions, aged three to seven years; 20,000 mares and fillies, aged eighteen months to seven years.

To Belgium—200 stallions, aged three to seven years; 10,000 mares and fillies, aged eighteen months to seven years.

All the animals to be delivered sound in body and limb.

BAYARDO COLT COMING TO AMERICA

LONDON, England, June 1.—The English dealer, Clarence Hailey, has recently bought from Mrs. Fenurck for an American the highly-bred three-year-old bay colt Daybreak, by Bayardo—Golden Dawn, by Raeburn—Dame d'Or, by Bend Or. The purchase includes the engagements, so the colt may remain in this country for the present, but eventually he is to go to the United States. The colt has never started in this country, but is in training with J. A. Dawson at Newmarket.

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF

Mrs. F. Ambrose Clark has recently added the green jumper Toynbee to her string of steeplechasers.

Up to May 25 Mr. W. K. Vanderbilt was the leading French owner, with five victories, representing $25,240.

James Robertson has arrived at Jamaica with the mare Valerie West, which has not raced since the Oaklawn meeting at Hot Springs early in the spring.

The fool story about jockey Frank Robinson leaving an estate of $500,000 is traveling all over the world and causing illy founded wonder in the minds of various turf critics.

James McLaughlin, who was patrol judge during the recent Belmont Park meeting, rode six winners of the Belmont Park Stakes back in the eighties, when he was premier jockey of the American turf.

There died last month at the Aislabie Stud, Stretchworth, Newmarket, the seven-year-old Sanctum, by Santoi—La Croisette, which won the Cesarewitch of 1916, for which he started a warm favorite.

Col. A. K. B. Lyman, who recently won a race at the Arlington meeting on his own horse, Amalgamator, has been ordered to France. The Lyman horses will continue to be raced by Matt Smart, who trains the string.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

Communications without names and addresses will not be noticed nor answered. No answers will be sent by mail and none by wire unless reply prepayment is made at time of wiring query.

A. L., New York, N. Y. Both transactions stood and the parlay called for the return of $31.60.

T. H. H., St. Louis, Mo. Sceptre won the Doncaster St. Leger of 1902 and was favorite for the race at 100 to 30. Orby won the Epsom Derby of 1907 by two lengths from Woolwinder. Orby was at 100 to 9 in the betting. Slieve Gallion's price was 13 to 8 on. He was third. John Reiff rode Orby.

LATEST ENGLISH RACING STATISTICS

Winners Among Owners, Sires and Jockeys up to May 25.

The winning statistics of the English turf up to May 25, which does not include, of course, the richer racing of early June, show Sir E. Hulton as the leading owner, Stornoway as first among the sires and S. Donoghue among the jockeys.

The owners to win $7,000 or over are:

Owner.	Winning Horses.	Races Won.	Value.
Hulton, Sir E.	5	7	$32,425
Black, Sir A.	2	2	29,190
Jersey, Lord	5	7	20,380
Joel, Mr. S. B.	9	14	19,070

Farquharson, Mr. R. J.	7	7	7,875
Savill, Mr. W. H.	3	3	7,420
Gant, Mr. D. M.	3	7	7,330

The sire statistics show the Irish horse Stornoway as the leader through Roseway, his daughter, winner of the One Thousand Guineas. Roseway is also responsible for Sir E. Hulton's place as leading winning owner. The sire figures follow:

Sires.	Winners.	Races.	Amt.
Stornoway, by Desmond—Sisterlike	4	5	$31,335
Tracery, by Rock Sand—Topiary	1	1	25,250

UNBEATEN LAST COIN IN TRAINING

Last Coin, the unbeaten seven-year-old son of Ultimus—Half Crown, is reported to be training soundly at the Latonia course under the skillful training of Rome Respess, who patched up the old sprinter and brought him back to the races last year after he had been on the shelf since his two-year-old days, when he won four straight victories for James Butler before falling lame. He won the only two races in which he started in 1918, so has a record of six wins and no defeats.

INDIAN CHAMPION FOR FRANCE

"Le Jockey" of Paris prints that Dark Legend will be sent to France soon if facilities can be obtained for his embarkation from Bombay, India, on a fast steamer. In that case he will be consigned to W. Pratt and may run in the Prix du Conseil Municipal, possibly in the Grand Prix de Deauville. In the event of early shipment being impossible he is to fulfill his autumn and winter engagements in India and will arrive in France early next January.

CUBAN FOALS ADMITTED TO STUD BOOK

NEW YORK, N. Y., June 13.—At the regular monthly meeting of the Jockey Club, held at Jamaica yesterday, with H. K. Knapp in the chair, the amendment to Rule 61 making Cuban-bred foals eligible to regstration in the Stud Book was adopted.

Winner—B. g, by Sir John Johnson—Deviltree (trained by J. W. Healy; bred by Mr. John E. Madden).

Went to post at 3:42. At post 1 minute. Start good and slow. Won driving; second and third the same. KING JOHN was forced wide on the first turn and was saved behind the leaders to the final eighth, where he raced into the lead, but was doing his best at the end to withstand IVRY'S belated challenge. The latter was in close quarters nearly throughout and finished fast and gamely. ALORS raced close up, but tired at the end as if short after taking the lead at the stretch entrance. HONG KONG ran well, but tired in the final drive. TIE PIN began slowly. PLUREEN ran out on all the turns.

INVITATION MEETING ON SEPTEMBER 27

NEW YORK, N. Y., June 13.—Saturday, September 27, has been selected as the date for the invitation race meeting to be tendered by J. E. Widener at his home, "Lynnewood Farm," Elkins Park, Pa. The details of the meeting will be arranged for by Frank J. Bryan, and every effort will be made to provide an afternoon of sport in keeping with the splendid results of previous meetings at the same place. All the purses will, of course, be presented by Mr. Widener, and all lovers of the thoroughbred will be welcomed as his guests for the day.

Six races will be run, three on the flat and the same number over the steeplechase course. The purses will, in each case, be extremely liberal.

The feature of the program will be a renewal of the Coligny Steeplechase, to which the added money will be $1,000.

The announcement that the meeting is to be held will be welcome news to all the devotees of the hunt meetings, and many of the most prominent stables have already volunteered to send horses to take part.
